Dear Pat,

Herewith, in response to your letter of 18 July 1969, are the coordinated views of the intelligence community on the seven questions posed by the Board's China panel.

Certain of the questions can be answered fairly briefly; others require more length. You will note that in two cases -- Questions I (recent Chinese Communist advanced weapons activities) and V (support to China's program from abroad) -- we have felt it useful to add detailed appendices.

The attached answers were purposely prepared at the Talent-Keyhole-Comint -- not the Byeman -- level, in order to ease greatly the process of community handling and coordination. This means that on a few occasions the text uses rather general language on certain specific operations,
